Darrington

Darrington is a beautiful town of roughly 1,500 people located at the western base of the Cascade Mountains. Darrington is located approximately 74 miles northeast of Seattle and offers some of the most wonderful views and outdoor recreation opportunities in the United States.

Darrington's low cost-of-living, excellent schools, availability of high-speed Internet access, and proximity to Seattle and nature make this a great place to visit, raise a family, or locate a business.
