Woodinville is set in the lush Sammamish Valley just northeast of Seattle. Scenic landscapes, wineries and nurseries are what make Woodinville a premier tourist destination. Woodinville's economy is a mix of light industrial, retail, tourism and is increasingly known for its local wineries, which showcase wines from grapes grown in Eastern Washington including Chateau Ste. Michelle (summer concert series), Columbia Winery. The Woodinville Tourist District is also home to the Redhook Ale Brewery and The Herbfarm restaurant.
