Black Diamond is a rural community treasured for its deep history beautiful scenery and friendly residents and is located between Maple Valley and Enumclaw.

The museum, bookstore and famous Black Diamond Bakery are located in historical downtown. The city also features Flaming Geyser State Park, Knotty State Park, Konasket Palmer, Green River Gorge and Lake Sawyer. The Union Stump Park has been transformed from blackberries and weeds into a delightful resting place complete with historical information that furthers the preservation of Black Diamond's growth.
