In 1975, the Steilacoom historic district was nominated for the National Register of Historic Places. Steilacoom is an amazing place, modern and yet locked into its roots. Steilacoom has retained a strong sense of history and pride, and is a place of many firsts, including the first school in Pierce County and the first public-lending library.

Residents and visitors alike often enjoy the beaches on the edge of the city by walking, bicycling, or jogging.
